

2019 PAWTUCKET PARKS & RECREATION PRESENTS FREE SUMMER CHILDREN'S PERFORMANCES

A variety of free children's performances will be presented in Slater Park for children and families from July 9th to August 20th. The stage is located between the Park Office and the Daggett House, across from the tennis courts.

The Slater Park Pavilion will be the alternate location in the event of rain. (conditions may change)

TUESDAY NIGHTS - 6PM

Date/Time	Event	Other Information
Tuesday, July 9th	Lon Cerel	A fun night of magic. Voted RI's "Best Party Entertainment" and a Slater Park favorite for many years!
Tuesday, July 16th	Bill Harley	A family-fun evening of singing and storytelling. Bill is sure to perform some of your favorites like "Monsters in the Bathroom", "You're In Trouble", and "Down in the Backpack."
Tuesday, July 23rd	Johnny the K	A nationally acclaimed musician, with an interactive style, brings his 12-string guitar, collection of hats, and strong message of respect and self-worth to the Park.
Tuesday, July 30th	T-Bone	He is known to his audiences as "America's Musical Pied Piper." His performances encourage audience participation, including "T-Bone's Camp Muckalucka."
Tuesday, August 6th	ROBERT CLARKE	Comedy, magic and juggling that's interactive for ALL ages. Amazingly funny, witty and skillful!
Tuesday, August 13th	COOL BANANA WIG	Cool Banana Wig's LIVE concerts focus on kids coming up and joining the band playing a variety of unique homemade instruments built by the band.
Tuesday, August 20th	Mr. Vinny the Bubble Guy	A night of bubbles! Children will be in awe seeing Mr. Vinny's most amazing bubble creations. A fun and interactive show! This performance takes place on the front lawn of the Watercolor Society location at Slater Park.
