A Different Perspective

2016

Pawtucket
— JOIN THE EVOLUTION —

A Message to the Residents and Taxpayers of the City of Pawtucket

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

The time has come again to turn the page from 2015 to a new calendar year. As we start 2016, my family and I would like to wish you nothing but the best for this upcoming year. A new year always gives us the opportunity to reflect on the past, dream of the future, and this year should be no different.

As I look back over the years, I am reminded of how much we have accomplished together and how proud I am of those accomplishments.

This past year we have seen major improvements to the infrastructure of our city. We are approaching the end of this season's ambitious road-paving program, which, when completed, will have seen nearly thirty miles of city streets and roads repaved. In addition, thanks to voters who passed all of the bond referenda this past November, we will be making some important infrastructure improvements to our schools, parks, public buildings and bridges during the next two years. All of these improvements are targeted toward improving the quality of life of our residents while building a strong foundation for future growth as we continue to build our bridge to progress.

Over the years, the City has and will continue to aggressively recruit new businesses to Pawtucket. We recently welcomed Pet Food Experts to our business community. They have relocated their corporate headquarters and added over 80 jobs at 175 Main Street in the heart of Pawtucket's downtown. Additionally, Peregrine Group has announced plans for significant mixed-use development on the riverfront property located on Division Street. The plan calls for commercial, retail and residential property, along with ample surface parking, on one of the most beautiful and unique parcels of land in Pawtucket. A little further down the river, the newly revitalized Festival Pier is receiving well-deserved accolades for the renovation it underwent. Lastly, I am pleased to welcome Isle Brewers Guild to our downtown. This craft beer cooperative is bringing multiple craft brewers to our downtown, including Narragansett Beer, which is making a return to Rhode Island. Pawtucket is now home to multiple breweries and is becoming a real hub for breweries in the region.

This year we also adopted a new city logo and slogan for Pawtucket – Join the Evolution. The new logo and slogan blends Pawtucket's industrial and riverfront roots with a modern and colorful rendering to reflect the city's current creative and entrepreneurial evolution. It is a call to action.

Thanks to our generous sponsors, I am, once again, pleased to present you with the annual city calendar. You will find a wealth of information on scheduled events, information on your local officials and the many services available to you.

I urge you to visit these sponsors and to thank them for their commitment to the calendar and our city.

I wish you a happy, healthy and prosperous 2016. More importantly, I want you to be proud of the city that we all call home. Join the Evolution!

Sincerely,

Mayor Donald R. Grebien

Your Official Guide to Experiencing Pawtucket

Pawtucket is not only an outstanding community in which to live and work but also a great place to play and to be entertained.

From Chinese dragon boats to championship Triple-A baseball, handcrafted jewelry exhibitors to live music in numerous genres, plus historical attractions, three critically acclaimed theater companies and top-notch recreational facilities, Pawtucket's your ticket for a day of fun or a night on the town.

There's also year-round ice skating at the Blackstone Valley Sports Center, 25 Andrew Ferland Way, eye-opening exhibitions at the Rhode Island Water Color Society in Slater Memorial Park on Newport Avenue, where its 435 acres also offer a great place to take a stroll. In addition the Rhode Island Music Hall of Fame at Hope Artiste Village was recently named the "Top Museum Worth Traveling For" in Rhode Island.

Or you can satisfy your palate at one of the city's many fine restaurants, from vegetarian and numerous ethnic varieties to down-home cooking at a historic diner. The enjoyment is here, all year round, just waiting for you and the whole family to enjoy.

The city's annual marquee event is the Pawtucket Arts Festival, which holds sway in the downtown and Festival Pier riverfront areas from the last weekend in August spanning the entire month of September, with a dizzying array of events, most at no charge and also with free parking.

Building on a Proud History of Innovation

Discover how a young industrialist who left England to launch a water-powered cotton mill in Pawtucket changed the world forever. More than 200 years ago, Samuel Slater had an idea. He built a wooden clapboard structure the size of a large garage and installed some machinery. Then he tapped the hydropower of both the Blackstone River and Pawtucket Falls. The result: For the first time in this country, cotton thread was spun by machine instead of by hand.

Visit Slater Mill (www.slatermill.org) located in one of America's newest national parks. The museum complex at 67 Roosevelt Avenue offers a fascinating tribute to Samuel Slater and the industrial innovations he began in America. You will get an authentic glimpse of life in a 19th century industrial village, with guides and re-enactors in traditional garb. Touring Slater Mill will bring you back to the early 1800s. At the adjacent Sylvanus Brown House (1758), you can witness demonstrations of hand spinning and weaving or watch a 16,000 lb. water wheel – the only one of its kind in the country – power the machine shop in the 1810 Wilkinson Mill. You can also enjoy exhibits of 19th and 20th century machinery, plus actual productions from an early textile factory and relive the evolution from hand-crafting to machine production.

Just a couple of miles down the road, tour the Rhode Island Music Hall of Fame at 1005 Main Street (www.rhodeislandmusichalloffame.com) in the vast Hope Artiste Village mill complex with its dozens of resident artisans, designers and entrepreneurs to see informative inductee exhibits celebrating Rhode Island's great musical heritage. This unique attraction promoting the state's musical heritage was named the Ocean State's "Top Museum Worth Traveling For" by www.flipkey.com, a vacation rental website that's part of the travel site TripAdvisor. While you're at Hope Artiste Village, be sure to stop by New Harvest Coffee Roasters, where roaster Eric Lepine was named a winner of the 2014 Coastal New England Rising Stars Award from StarChefs.com.

Arts and Entertainment District

Pay no sales tax on original artwork produced and sold by hundreds of Pawtucket's artists in their own studios or showcased in the city's numerous art galleries. More than 60 Pawtucket streets are located within this 307-acre zone, which wraps itself around the historic Slater Mill site and the downtown area. Or take a short hop to the Rhode Island Antiques Mall at 345 Fountain Street, visible from I-95, which twice Oscar-nominated, Rhode Island-born actor and antiques aficionado James Woods has been known to frequent.

The Pawtucket Arts District features art studios and artists in every form, often in renovated commercial buildings and mills: printmakers, glass blowers, silversmiths, visual artists, graphic designers, leather workers, jewelry designers, photographers, screen printers, dance studios and others. Artists known the world over have their workplaces in Pawtucket. Some of the city's famous artists include glass artist Howard Ben Tré, interior designer Morris Nathanson and artist Gretchen Dow Simpson, whose work has graced 58 covers of The New Yorker magazine.

Pawtucket Arts Festival

The Pawtucket Arts Festival (www.pawtucketartsfestival.org), in its 18th year, features hundreds of artists showcasing their arts and crafts, along with dozens of other attractions highlighting the visual, musical and performing arts. A statewide photography contest, film festival, juried art show and open studios tours of artist live/work spaces in mills throughout the city, along with plays performed by local theaters, are among the many offerings. Almost every color of the musical rainbow can be heard, including salsa, jazz, zydeco, doo-wop, blues, Irish, folk, pop and classical.

One of New England's largest festivals brings thousands of spectators to Festival Pier for the Rhode Island Chinese Dragon Boat Races & Taiwan Day Festival, featuring spirited races on the Pawtucket River and folk dancing and traditional music along the pier. The Festival's crowning event each year is the always much anticipated appearance of the Rhode Island Philharmonic Orchestra performing their Pops in the Park concert at Slater Memorial Park, capped by a dazzling fireworks display.

On the Waterfront

Enjoy recreational water activities at the city's boat ramp, dock and fishing areas below the Division Street Bridge. You can launch your small boat and make your way down river to beautiful Narragansett Bay. The city has completed a Comprehensive Plan to upgrade the Festival Pier area for the enjoyment of residents and guests alike.

In Pawtucket's downtown there's the Riverfront Summer Concert Series, which features great music every Sunday during the summer. Blues, swing, jazz and Dixieland fill the air at the Veterans Memorial Amphitheatre next to the City Hall complex on Exchange Street. The Slater Park Summer Concert Series brightens the summer season, including a wealth of programming geared towards children and families.

Full Recreational Facilities

Slater Memorial Park is much more than a venue for music or a leisurely walk. The park features tennis and basketball courts, a bike path, fishing, picnic sites, paddle boats, a dog park, plus a very special attraction: the Charles I. D. Looff Carousel, the oldest stander carousel in the world. Across from the carousel, enjoy the creative exhibits at the Rhode Island Water Color Society. Be sure to stroll over to the nearby Daggett House, the oldest house in Pawtucket and one of the oldest remaining buildings in Rhode Island. Constructed in 1685, the house is furnished with period antiques, including needlework, Colonial pewter used during the Revolutionary War and china owned by the family of General Nathanael Greene.

On Center Stage

Musical comedies, Shakespeare and dramas presented just "as you like it" are performed by three resident Pawtucket theater troupes. The Sandra Feinstein-Gamm Theatre (www.gammtheatre.org), 172 Exchange Street, describes its mission as creating "the finest of live theater, engaging the audience intensely in current and recurrent issues of consequence." This theater was founded in 1984 and relocated to Pawtucket in 2003. The Community Players (www.thecommunityplayers.org), established in 1921 and the oldest community theater group in Rhode Island, fills the seats at the Joseph Jenks Junior High School auditorium at 350 Division Street, across from McCoy Stadium. Since its founding in 2000 by Ricardo and Bernadette Pitts-Wiley, Mixed Magic Theatre (www.mmtri.com), newly relocated to 560 Mineral Spring Avenue, has brought diverse stories to the stage through words and song from well-known dramas to original productions.

Live music, as it has for decades, continues to find a welcome home in Pawtucket. Stone Soup Coffeehouse, one of New England's oldest coffee houses, brings nationally recognized folk singers to its new home at Slater Mill, 67 Roosevelt Avenue. Come listen to the contemporary music at The Met, 1005 Main Street, or visit Machines with Magnets, 400 Main Street. Doherty's East Avenue Irish Pub, 340 East Avenue, the News Café, 43 Broad Street, Arigna Irish Pub & Coal Fire Kitchen, 507 Armistice Boulevard, and the German American Cultural Society of RI, 78 Carter Avenue, for just a sampling of the city's live music venues.

For an entertaining visit of a different kind, the Pawtucket Armory Arts Center LLC, 172 Exchange Street (adjacent The Gamm Theatre), has been transformed into a community meeting place. Once a year the Foundry Artists Association hosts their December holiday sale of unique arts and crafts, and the Pawtucket Open Market Place draws thousands of shoppers into the City's historic downtown.

Paint & Vino, 150 Main Street, offers easy and fun lessons in acrylic painting. Each person also receives 2 complimentary glasses of wine or beer (must be 21+).

From November to May, Pawtucket becomes a destination for garden-fresh produce and other goods from local farmers at the Farm Fresh Rhode Island's Winter Farmer's Market at Hope Artiste Village, 1005 Main Street. In summer this farmer's market moves to Slater Memorial Park. For details, go to www.farm-freshri.org.

Community-Sponsored Activities

An array of community-sponsored activities, from the Pawtucket Fireworks Committee's July 3rd pyrotechnics extravaganza at McCoy Stadium to colorful ethnic festivals (Portuguese, Colombian, Greek, Chinese and German), are held annually in Pawtucket. There is also the city's 33-year-old St. Patrick's Parade, which steps off on the first Saturday in March to assure participation by some of the major Irish marching bands in the region and the inspiring sounds of their kilted bagpipers. Get into the spirit of Halloween by coming to the Haunted Tunnel at Slater Memorial Park, open every Friday and Saturday nights in October.

Topping off each year is Pawtucket's Winter Wonderland spectacular in Slater Memorial Park in December. You can stroll through a Victorian village, consisting of buildings surrounded by hundreds of decorated Christmas trees, or revel in the special holiday spirit of carolers, bell ringers, clowns, puppeteers and musicians. Youngsters can also have their pictures taken with Santa and enjoy a hay wagon ride.

FREEDOM IS NOT FREE

HELP US KEEP THE CITY CLEAN AND GREEN

Did you know? That loads of recycling that are highly contaminated with trash - things like food waste, yard waste, construction debris, textiles, and bulk waste - can be rejected from the recycling facility? It costs the City $250 plus $32/ton to landfill highly contaminated loads. Please do your part by sticking to these rules of thumb for what to recycle in your blue cart.

RULES OF THUMB FOR YOUR RECYCLING CART:

PLASTICS

RULE: Recycle plastic CONTAINERS, up to 2 gallons in size ONLY. Disregard numbers and triangle.

EXCEPTIONS? No Styrofoam cups/containers, plastic bags, "empty" automotive fluid bottles, "compostable" cups, black planters and plug trays, acrylic or Plexi-glass cases.

PREP: Empty and rinse. Don't crush flat. No straws. Gently replace caps and lids first and then recycle. Take plastic shopping bags back to any large grocery, pharmacy or big-box store for recycling.

GLASS

RULE: Recycle glass jars and bottles ONLY.

EXCEPTIONS? No "Pyrex" containers.

PREP: Empty and rinse. Remove metal lids/caps first and recycle both separately.

METALS

RULE: Recycle metal cans/foil and lids/caps from glass jars + bottles ONLY.

EXCEPTIONS? No yogurt lids or foil-like candy/chip wrappers.

PREP: Empty and rinse. No product, air or noise should come from aerosol cans when the nozzle is pressed down. Don't crush cans flat. Do bunch up foil first.

PAPER/CARDBOARD

RULE: Recycle paper/cardboard that is free of food and grease, isn't treated to be waterproof (e.g. fridge or freezer boxes, paper coffee cups) + isn't for sanitary use (e.g. napkins, paper towels) ONLY.

EXCEPTIONS? Please DO recycle waterproof cartons (e.g. milk, juice, soup, broth).

PREP: It's OK to leave tape/labels/staples on. Double-bag shredded paper in clear bags first (no other recycling allowed in plastic bags). Replace plastic caps back on cartons' plastic spouts first, then recycle.
